Consultancy Agreement

between

The International Bank for Reconstruction and Development, Washington D.C., USA as Administrator of a Norwegian Trust Fund “TFT Technology Fosters Tradition” TFNo:051328-MAU

and

Supras Consult, Kristiansand, Norway

Dated: _____ 2003

CONTRACT

The Agreement is made on _____ 2003, between

- International Bank for Reconstruction and Development, 1818 H Street, Washington D.C., 20433 United States, as Administrator of a Norwegian Trust Fund “TFT Technology Fosters Tradition” TFNo:051328-MAU (hereafter referred to as “Administrator”)
and
- Supras Consult (hereafter referred to as “Lead Consultant”), P.O. Box 1600, NO-4688 Kristiansand, Norway

The Administrator has requested the Lead Consultant to provide certain services in connection with the above consultancy, described and agreed upon in the following documents, annexed this Contract, and which form, together with this Contract, the Consultancy Agreement:

- (1) The Conditions (3 pages, of even date herewith);
- (2) Terms of Reference for Supras Consult (6 pages, of even date herewith);
- (3) Technology Fosters Tradition, Concept Note ( 9 pages, June 2002);
- (4) Norwegian Grant Agreement TF051328-MAU (4 pages, dated September 27, 2002); and, in subsidiary form,
- (5) the World Bank Standard Form for Consultant’s Services (complex time-based assignments dated June 1995, as amended).

The Lead Consultant agrees to employ Mr. Lars T. Soeftestad to perform the services in conformity with the provisions of the Consultancy agreement.

The Administrator agrees to pay the Lead Consultant, in consideration of the performance of the Lead Consultant’s services carried out through Mr. Lars T. Soeftestad, such amounts as become payable under the provision of the Consultancy Agreement at the times and in the manner prescribed by said Agreement.
